Prime Properties for Business

The United States Virgin Islands is more than just an ideal tourism destination in the Caribbean; it is also the ideal location for doing business and maximizing your company's profits.

The USVI has a number of attractive incentives and we understand that evaluating physical locations and property for your business is another important component. There is a spot on any one of the islands perfect for your business needs and identity.

From historic buildings and industrial parks on St. Croix and St. Thomas to hillsides and beachfront property on St. John, there are ideal locations across the USVI. With already standing infrastructure waiting to be redeveloped, large tracts of land that are construction-ready, and industrial parks where companies thrive together; the USVI is ready to be called “home.”
